

ALABAMA POLITICIANS.

Colored Republicans Object to Apostate Leaders.—Bishop Small Honored.

Mobile, Ala., Special—The reception given to Bishop J. B. Small by the citizens of Mobile, at State St., church last Tuesday night will long be remembered by him. The different clergymen of the city was a feature of the program. Rev. A. N. McEwen, pastor of Franklin Street Baptist church certainly knows how to sway an audience. Rev. McEwen and Dr. R. A. Morris, pastor of Big Zion church made able addresses.

Hon. W. J. Steven's letter to Senator Marcus A. Hanna, Chairman of the Republican National Executive Committee voices the sentiment of every Negro in Alabama in this first Congressional District. The reference so said of President Roosevelt has appointed one of the strongest Lillie Whites in Mobile county as dictator of all the federal appointments of this District in the person of York, Pa.

W. H. Ambrech. Just before the last Republican State Convention, Ambrech ran in the Democratic primaries for Attorney General, and was defeated as soon as the majority of the Negroes of Alabama was disfranchised. Up comes this Negro hater, who said in the Birmingham Convention that he would not sit in a convention with a Negro or support a white man, who was elected to a convention by a Negro. He wants to be the dictator as to who should hold federal office in his District.

Messrs. Jas. T. Peterson and Clarence Allen have returned from New York. Mr. Allen speaks of having called on Hon. W. H. Smith while in New York, and says he has all of the law practice he can attend to.

Mr. J. S. Davis is back in Mobile again. Mr. Davis is a member of the Republican State Executive Committee of which Mr. Wm. Stevens is the chairman. He is also an able newspaper writer. After visiting Chicago, St. Paul, Milwaukee, St. Louis and other northern and western cities, he is now located at his post at the Bienville Hotel and is a successful agent for The Colored American in Mobile. At the People's Drug Store you can purchase The Colored American at all times.

up of the best instructors in the District. The "Announcement" is a unique booklet, which contains neat half tone cuts of Miss Harriet A. Gibbs, the president, Mme. E. Azalia Hackley, vocalist and teacher, Mr. J. Hillary Taylor, librarian and secy. of the Board, and Mr. Clarence C. White registrar and conservatory secy. The books are now open for pupils and the public is invited to inspect the school and its workings. Mrs. Gabrielle Lewis Pelham, one of the best known musicians in the city and wife of our popular fellow townsman, Mr. Robert Pelham, Jr., is corresponding secy.

Mr. Joseph E. Norris, a clerk in the local post-office, and Miss Octavia Green, niece of Mrs. M. E. Thomas, of 1527 Madison avenue, were married October 5, by Rev. Sterling Brown.

Mme. Smallwood, the well-known instructor in the De La Morton Dress-making, cutting and fitting system, whose academy is located at 1531 Madison avenue, this city, has gone on her annual ten days' inspection trip of her New York City and Philadelphia school.
